

BUSINESS TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY RETURN

State Form 11274 (R43 / 11-23)

Prescribed by the Department of Local Government Finance

FORM 103 – SHORTPRIVACY NOTICEThis form contains confidential information pursuant to IC 6-1.1-35-9.JANUARY 1, 2024

For Assessor's Use Only

NOTE: For taxpayers with less than $80,000 in acquisition costs to report within the county, IC 6-1.1-3-7.2 exempts this property. If you are claiming this exemption, check this box, enter the total acquisition cost of your personal property in the county, and complete only sections I, II, and IV of this form. If you are claiming this exemption through this form, you must also file a Form 104. If you filed a return and claimed this exemption in a previous assessment year and you continue to qualify for this exemption, no return is required.

If property is in more than one (1) location, what is the address for the location where the sum of acquisition costs for the property is greatest?

An exemption granted under IC 6-1.1-10 or any other statute supersedes this exemption. In other words, a taxpayer whose personal property is exempt because the taxpayer applied for and was granted an exemption by the county must follow all applicable procedures for the approved exemption, which may include fully completing the personal property return.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Please type or print.
2. This form must be filed with the township assessor, if any, or county assessor of the county in which the property is located not later than May 15, 2024, unless an extension of up to thirty (30) days is granted in writing. Contact information for the assessor is available at: <https://www.in.gov/dlgf/contact-your-local-officials/>.
3. A Form 104 must be filed with this return.

NOTE: You must use Form 103 – Long if:

- a. You are a manufacturer or processor;
- b. Your business personal property assessment is $150,000 or more;
- c. You wish to claim any exemptions or deductions (other than the enterprise zone credit); or
- d. You are claiming any special adjustments such as equipment not placed in service, special tooling, permanently retired equipment, or abnormal obsolescence.

Filing Basics:

- For taxpayers with less than $80,000 in acquisition costs to report within the county, Ind. Code § 6-1.1-3-7.2 exempts this property. If you are claiming this exemption through this form, you must also file a Form 104. If you filed a return and claimed this exemption in the previous assessment year and you continue to qualify for this exemption, no return is required for this assessment date.
 - To locate contact information for the various county offices (assessor, auditor, and treasurer), locate forms, and learn more about Indiana's personal property tax system, go to: www.in.gov/dlgf. Contact information for the assessor is available at: <https://www.in.gov/dlgf/contact-your-local-officials/>.
 - Taxpayers may request up to a thirty (30) day extension of time to file their return. The written request should be sent to the assessor before the filing deadline of May 15, 2024, and should include a reason for the request. The assessor may, at their discretion, approve or disapprove the request in writing.
 - Personal property must be assessed in each taxing district where property has a tax situs.
 - Inventory located in the State of Indiana is exempt and is not required to be reported per Ind. Code § 6-1.1-1-11(b)(3).
 - It is the responsibility of the taxpayer to obtain forms from the assessor and file a timely return. The forms are also available online at the Department's website: www.in.gov/dlgf.
 - Taxpayers may consider the ease of filing this short form versus the possible tax savings by filing Form 103 – Long before choosing the form they wish to file.
 - If you hold, possess, or control not-owned personal property on the assessment date, you have a liability for the taxes imposed for that year unless you establish that the property is to be assessed to the owner. This is done by completing a Form 103 – N, attaching it to the Form 103 – Short, and filing it with the assessor. A taxpayer declaring the exemption on page one of this form may, as deemed necessary by the applicable assessor, need to file Form 103 – O or Form 103 – N, as applicable, to verify that the individual is the appropriate taxpayer to claim the exemption.
- NOTE: Failure to properly disclose lease information may result in a double assessment (IC 6-1.1-2-4(a))
- Taxpayers who discover an error was made on their original timely filed personal property tax return have the right to file an amended return. The amended return must be filed within twelve (12) months of the due date or the extended due date (if up to a thirty (30) day extension was granted) of their original return. The deadline to amend this return, if no extension has been granted, is May 15, 2025.
 - In order to reduce the possibility of an estimated assessment and failure to file a return penalty, taxpayers may elect to inform the assessor when personal property is sold or moved out of a county.
